

Freeform: Digital Sculpting With Adaptive Surface Topology and Seamless 3D Coordinate Systems

Real-Time Live!

Contact:
Mike Fitzgerald and David Battilana
Harmonix Music Systems

Image courtesy of Leap Motion, Inc., 2014.

Freeform introduces powerful and accessible digital sculpting using native motion-controlled 3D input provided by the Leap Motion Controller and the user's natural hand movements, combined with adaptive surface topology, seamless integration of 2D and 3D coordinate systems, and novel isopotential-based camera control.